PROPOSALS,

PROPOSALS.

PROPOSALS FOR MATERIALS TO BE SUPPLIED to the Navy Yards under the cognizance of the Bureau of Equipment and Recruiting.

Navy Department,

Bureau of Equipment and Recruiting.

Bureau of Bquipment and Recruiting,

Washington, D. C., June 28, 1872.

Senied Proposals to furnish materials for the Navy for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1873, will be received at this bureau until 10 c-lock A. M. of the 2th of July next, at which time the proposals will be opened.

The proposals must be addressed to the "Chief of the Bureau of Equipment and Recruiting, Navy Department, washington," and must be endorsed "Proposals for Materials for the Navy," that they may be distinguished from ordinary business letters.

To prevent confusion and facilitate the opening of the bids, parties bidding for supplies at several yards will enclose their bids in reparate envelopes, each endossed. Thin the falles for such classes as parties deal in and intend to bid for, together with instructions to bidders, giving the forms of proposal, of guarantee and of certificate of guarantors, with printed forms of offer, will be furnished to such persons as desire to bid, on application to the Commandants of the respective may yards, and those of all the yards on application to the Bureau.

The Commandant of each navy yard and the Purchasing Paymaster for each station will have a copy of the schedules of the other yards, for examination only, in order that persons who intend to bid may judge whicher it is desirable to make application for any of the classes of those yards.

The proposals must be for the whole of a class, but the Department reserves the right to reduce the whole class, or those yards.
The proposals must be for the whole of a class, but the

The proposals must be for the whole of a class, but the Department reserves the rightly reduce the whole class, should the interest of the government require it, before the execution of the contract. All applications for information, or for the examination of samples, must be made to the Commandants of the respective yards.

In accordance with the law, bits or offers will be received only from parties who are bons fide dealers in or manufacturers of the articles they offer to furnish. The quarantors must be certified by the Assessor of Internal Revenue for the district in which they reside.

The contract will be awarded to the person who makes the lowest bid and gives the guarantee required by law, the Navy Department, however, reserving the right to reject the lowest bid, or any which it may deem exorbitant. reject the lowest bid, or any which it may deem exorbiant.

Under the provisions of the second section of the act approved March 3, 1863, the offer of any person who, as principal or surety, has not filled his contract for 1871-72, will not be received.

Sureties in the full amount will be required to sign the contract, and their responsibility must be certified to the satisfaction of the Navy Department.

As additional security twenty per centum will be withheld from the amount of the bills until the contracts shall have been completed, and eighty per centum of the amount of each bill, approved in triplicate by the commandants of the respective yards, will be pad by the parmaster of the station designated in the contract, or, if none is specified, by the paymaster of the station nearest the yard where the goods are delivered, within ten days after the warrant for the same shall have been passed by the Secretary of the Treasury.
